LONESOME HIGHWAY BLUES

The highway runs long and straight across the empty space
When I look in the rear view I swear I can see you wave
Sittin' on the front porch step the morning that I left Promised I'd come back someday but I ain't made it yet

I got these Lonesome Highway Blues
'Cause this old road won't turn me loose
I got these long gone away from home livin' on the Lonesome Highway Blues

The waitress fills my coffee cup spills out on the counter top
Records on the jukebox like wheels that never stop
Reminds me of another time before we said goodbye
I was yours and you were mine but I was never satisfied

Chorus

I wake up in a new motel every morning by myself
Then I hit the highway a-goin' somewheres else
I can't say I'm missin' you unless I tell the truth
I hope to find the road today that takes me back to you

Chorus
